I Didn't Know What It Meant. He gave me a knife one day at school. Four-bladed the haudle of pearl, And great black words on the wrapper said. For the darlingest little girl.' I was glad! O yes, yet the crimson blood To my young cheeks came and went, And my heart thumped wondrously pit-a-pat, But I didn't know what it meant. One night he said I must jump on his steed, For the snow was falling fast; I was half afraid, but he coaxed and coaxed. And got me on at last, Laughing and chatting in merry glee. To my home his course he bent. My sisters looked at each other and smiled.

But I didn't know what it meant.

With a shadow of deeper blue; They gave to his form a manlier grace. To his cheek a swarthier hue, We stood by the dreamily rippling brook, When the day was almost spent-His whispers were as soft as the lullaby-And-now I know what it meant ! The Washington correspondent of the Charleston

Mercury says: The construction of the House committee betray more than one purpose. While the large States at the North have control of all the essential committees - New York having the chairmanship of nine committees, Ohio five and Pennsylvania four-yet you will see that the Southern States have not been excluded from some honors.— There is the Palmetto State which claims the chairmanship of one committee, and Mr. Ashmore is the highly favored gentleman. It is true that the committee "on mileage is not a very laborious one, yet it claims dignity and place in the list with others of more note. The mileage of members is a question of considerable personal interest to the members generally.

Then Mr. Gilmer, of North Carolina, is designated as the Chairman of the Committee " on Elections," and being a great friend of Henry Winter Davis, whose seat is already contested, as well as many others, which are to be, it is very plain that personal and highly conservative (?) grounds were taken in the election of the Chairman and in the majority of its members. Of course a Democrat or two is sprinkled in it. It will not be easily forgotten that Mr. Winter Davis voted for Mr. Penington; and it will also be recollected that although blood and murder, Rip Raps and Plug Uglies, fraud and corruption elected him to office, yet his vote for Pennington and his sliding-scale deportment will save him his seat in the present Congress if we are not vastly mistaken. Stranger things occur. He has been placed tolk, wholesale Agents. second to Shermon on the Committee of Ways and

To proceed: Mr. Gilmer is not the only man of the Crittenden, Bates and Fillmore party, who is observaridge, of Tennessee, made Chairman "On Indian Affairs;" Robert Mallory, of Kentucky, who heads the Committee "On Roads and Canals;" and Robert Hutton, of Tennessee, who is the Chairman "On Expenditures of the Navy Department."

Louisiana holds the chairman of one unimportant committee in the person of Mr. Davidson, whose delicate shades of opinion we are unable to discern, except that we understand him to be a very Union-Democratic man. To which, when we mention Mr. John A. Logan, of 11linois, a simon-pure Douglass man, you have the full list of the Democratic chairmanship honors accorded by Mr. Pennington, which are three in number-Ashmore,
